

Phillips S. Engelke SEGD

Vice President

As one of the creators and directors of the Environments Studio. Mr. Engelke has successfully completed urban and environmental graphics programs for major international and national architectural projects. International projects have been delivered in locations such as Paris, Berlin, Lisbon, Dubai, Seoul, and Yokohama. In the United States, he has worked in Orlando, Boston, Los Angeles, Houston and Baltimore, among others. Clients include Disney, MCA Universal, and The Mills Corporation.

Having moved to RTKL from the broadcasting and advertising industries, Mr. Engelke is an industry leader and serves on the Board of Directors for the Society for Environmental Graphic Designers (SEGD). He has spoken at many of the primary industry conferences including SEGD, Urban Land Institute (ULI) in Buenos Aires, and Centerbuild, the International Council on Shopping Centers annual conference. Mr. Engelke's talents in creating and scripting 'the experience' for projects have led to numerous project awards and on-going project success for clients.
